ONE MORE THING: Like matching ribbon to paper, only harder, Sugarplum combines our best origins of the year in the best possible combo. Here's our deliciously fruity, Christmassy as always, 2017 edition. It was even voted favourite at Single 0's recent all-staff meeting, now that's a bunch you can trust. So fill up your hopper or a coffee-lover's stocking. Thanks for a cracker year!

BARISTA NOTE : Brewing coffee can highlight an array of different flavours depending on the method & recipe. For Sugarplum, although it's a very versatile coffee that tastes great at a variety of extractions, we're really aiming for a flavour profile that balances big sweetness, Christmas cake flavour & a thick, rich body. To do this we developed a recipe that raised the ratio of coffee to water & slowed down the extraction time. Merry Christmas!!!
