

KONGA ETHIOPIA

WILD
ROSE

TASTE: Complex & floral. Apricot, black tea, rose.

VARIETY: Wild Heirloom

PROCESS: Washed

ORIGIN: Gedeo Zone, Yirgacheffe

PRODUCER: Konga Co-op

ALTITUDE: 1800-2100m

ONE MORE THING: Nestled near the town of Yirgacheffe, the Konga Cooperative was established in 1975 and is home to nearly 4,000 members growing a vast mix of native varieties. Referred to collectively as Ethiopian heirloom, these wild coffees thrive at the region's high altitude and earn their distinctive flavours from natural cross-pollination. Don't be surprised if the complex citrus & floral profile found in each cup of Konga conjures up visions of this sprawling wonderland.
