

ONE TO CHERRY-ISH

EL CONQUISTADOR

COSTA RICA

TASTE: Orange & lemon acidity with a dark chocolate sweetness

VARIETY: Catuai/Caturra

PROCESS: Washed

ORIGIN: Dota, Tarrazú

PRODUCER: Hacienda La Minita

ALTITUDE: 1400 – 1600m

ONE MORE THING: El Conquistador is not only incredible any way you brew it but it's also an increasingly rare treat. Backstory for you. The Costa Rican government sets a min. price for coffee daily & since competition for the best cherry is high, so too is the price. Land values are also soaring & farms are being sold all over the shop. Meaning coffees like this are only going to get scarcer. We're lovin' it as filter but encourage you to savour it any way you can, while you can. This is one to cherry-ish!
