

NATURE'S TREASURE

DERI KOCHA

ETHIOPIA

TASTE: Pineapple,
papaya & plum, juicy
lingering sweetness

VARIETY: Heirloom

PROCESS: Natural

ORIGIN: Guji, Sidama

PRODUCER: Local
rural farmers

ALTITUDE: 1800-2000m

ONE MORE THING: A tropical revelry, this juicy Ethiopian natty is a no-brainer for your desert island; each cup whisks you away with a wave of pineapple, papaya & plum. Almost as hard to come by as buried treasure, this coffee comes courtesy of Deri Kocha, where most of the coffee (hailing from 500-700 smallholder farms) is fully washed. Thankfully, they allocate a small percentage to be natural processed, which brings out that juicy sweetness. We can't help but bang on about how much we love it, natch.
