ONE MORE THING: Yeeeew! It's our first feature from Boncafé, a group dedicated to forging a clearer path between small-lot producers & specialty coffee drinkers. This tropical fruit flavour bomb was produced by Gerardo López who started out by running a coffee plant nursery before deciding to try farming himself. Boncafé helped provide the keys to unlocking the specialty market for Gerardo by assisting with processing expertise and Rainforest Alliance & Organic certifications. Enjoy this first taste of Honduras coffee magic, there is more to come!
