ONE MORE THING: And we're away with the second of our five Honduran small lot farms. Recap if you missed the first; these are stunning, unique-tasting coffees from producers who, despite having farmed coffee for some time, have only recently had access to the specialty market, thanks to a new exporter group linking in roasters like us. Los Guamos is Santos's pride & joy (along with his 7 children.) He has a total property of 4.55 hectares, plenty of coffee experience & recent Organic & UTZ certification. One to lap up!
