ROASTED WITH LOVE IN SYDNEY

ONE MORE THING: Just last year, inspired by a workshop on best practices for producing high quality, coffee entrepreneur Moses Venapoe decided to create a coffee cherry buying station in his community, paying 30% above market price to farmers who were willing to deliver only ripe red cherry. To manage production in full, he set up his own mill to process the coffee & meticulously sun dry the parchment on raised beds. You're about to experience the exceptional quality possible in PNG when you have people like Moses who see the value in rewarding producers & investing in systems that support quality.
