ONE MORE THING: The goods keep on comin' with our next Honduras small lot feature, produced by Enrique Moreno. Enrique has been planting and growing coffee since the age of 16. He built his house at the age of 17, got married and had four children. He bought his first farming land at 22 and now owns 1.76 hectares, upon which he grows Yellow Paca, Catimor & Catuai varieties. To cap off all this good news, Enrique's coffee tastes exceptional too, with notes of tropical fruit and agave nectar.
