ONE MORE THING: Our producer partner Azahar puts the leg(work) into legends! How? By searching the most remote areas of Colombia to find the best farmers & product. And instead of having these coffees sent on to a mill to be mixed up in regional profiles (The majority of Colombia's coffee ends up in blends!), they've given us direct access to these individual harvests. This exceptional coffee is one of eight small lots we're featuring from Nariño, as part of our Colombia Small Lot Series.
