ONE MORE THING: Here is a natural processed coffee that sets the bar for dry process. Aricha is known for producing exceptional washed coffee, but their natural processed coffees are always a memorable experience, and this year is no different. The farms surrounding the station are located in some of the highest coffee growing areas in Yirgacheffe. Aricha station maintains its quality reputation by utilising meticulous hand sorting at the mill, which is incentivised by paying more for ripe cherry. The result is a complex & exceptionally clean coffee.
