ONE MORE THING: When a coffee this distinct and memorable comes along, from the Uraga Washing Station renowned for producing exceptional washed and natural coffees, you go and grab both processes. At least that's what we've done this year. We're happy you've got hold of this plummy natty, handpicked by smallholder growers at peak ripeness and expertly processed just 12kms away from the growing region. Enjoy. And seek out the washed one too!
